

2011 Canadian Law and Society Association Annual Meeting

Coasts and Continents: Exploring People and Places

80th Congress of the Humanities and Social Sciences

Call for Papers

The program committee of the Canadian Law & Society Association invites submissions for the Congress of the Humanities and Social Sciences to be held at the University of New Brunswick & St. Thomas University in Fredericton, New Brunswick. The Congress 2011 theme, Coasts and Continents: Exploring People and Places, is an invitation for socio-legal scholars to contemplate the complexities of our expanding worlds and to challenge arbitrary borders and boundaries of all kinds. We welcome proposals for papers in any area of law and society scholarship. We encourage participants to submit suggestions for complete panels and roundtables, but also welcome individual submissions. Please include a panel theme, paper titles and abstracts of up to 250 words, along with any technological needs and the full institutional affiliation and contact information for each presenter. Please indicate if you are a graduate student. Graduate student events and workshops will be an integral part of CLSA 2011. If you are willing to participate in the conference as panel chair, please indicate this on your submission. Streams of panels on particular themes are also welcome. Past themes have focussed on, for example, critical criminology, gender & sexuality and indigenous legal knowledge.

Where: University of New Brunswick and St. Thomas University, Fredericton, NB

When: May 29-31, 2011

Deadline: Jan 28, 2011 (early expressions of interest are encouraged).

Submission Information: Please forward panel and paper proposals by email attachment to Lise Gotell, Chair, CLSA Program Committee, lise.gotell@ualberta.ca. Presenters must be members of the CLSA.

Other: Information on registration, accommodation and other Congress activities can be found at www.congress2011.ca and in the registration guide to be mailed in January, 2011.
